ALLAN H. "BUD" SELIG

PRESIDENT & CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

For the past 26 years, Allan H. "Bud" Selig has been the driving force behind baseball in Milwaukee and at the national level in his capacity as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Milwaukee Brewers.

Committed to keeping Major League Baseball a part of Wisconsin's fabric, Selig has been an integral player in the ever-changing world of baseball economics. Since being appointed as the Chairman of the game's Executive Council on September 9, 1992, his involvement with the game on a national basis has increased dramatically. In that capacity, Selig oversees the committee which has authority of the Baseball Commissioner.

Selig is also Chairman of the Major League Baseball Player Relations Committee, a member of the Major League Ownership Committee and a trustee of Baseball's Hall of Fame.

With the addition of Sal Bando as Senior Vice President—Baseball Operations in October of 1991, Selig re-emphasized his commitment to winning. Now, as the club strives to win in the Central Division, Selig and Bando work toward putting an outstanding team on the field for Brewers fans to cheer. Ironically, it was Bando who first made the Brewers a legitimate pennant contender when he signed as the club's first free agent in 1977.

Selig's Brewers are committed to developing a strong farm system. They have won seven "Organization of the Year" awards, including the prestigious TOPPS "Organization of the Year" award in 1992, 1991, 1989 and 1987. In addition, the Brewers won an unprecedented three straight Baseball America awards from 1985-87. The Brewers farm system has a .549 (2252-1844) record in the '90's, the best record of any club in baseball.

Selig has been lauded for his efforts on numerous occasions. Most recently, he was named as Wisconsin's Top Sports Personality over the past 25 years by the Milwaukee Pen & Mike Club in February, 1995. He also was honored with the "World of Difference" Award from the Anti-Defamation League at a dinner in Milwaukee in February 1994.

On May 16, 1993, Selig was the recipient of the distinguished Ellis Island Congressional Medal of Honor. The medal is awarded to outstanding citizens of the United States who have contributed to our national identity while preserving the distinct values and heritage of their ancestors.

In December of 1990, Bud received the "Distinguished Citizen Award" from the Potawatomi Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

Under Selig's tutelage, the Brewers received the "Baird Award for Management Excellence" in April of 1989. The Baird Award is given annually to a Wisconsin corporation that consistently demonstrates superior financial achievement and community involvement.

In February of 1981, Selig was honored by the B'nai B'rith Foundation and received the "International B'nai B'rith Sportsman of the Year Award" for his distinguished contributions to the world of sports. He was singled out in May of 1983 by the United States Olympic Committee to receive their distinguished "Sportsman of the Year Award" for his contributions to baseball and to youth activities in Milwaukee.

Also counted among Selig's many honors is the prestigious "August A. Busch, Jr. Award" presented at a joint meeting of the Major Leagues in September of 1989. The award is given for "long and meritorious service to baseball" and is equivalent—for off-field personnel—to the players' Most Valuable Player Award. In 1978, he was named "Major League Executive of the Year" by United Press International, one of the most prestigious awards a baseball executive can earn.

Selig is a member of the Board of Directors of the Green Bay Packers Football Team, the Greater Milwaukee Committee, University of Wisconsin-Medical School, Baird Mutual Funds, the Milwaukee Symphony and the Oil-Dri Corporation of America. He is a founder of the Athletes for Youth, was instrumental in establishing the Child Abuse Prevention (CAP) Fund and serves on the Advisory Board of BADD (Business Against Drunk Drivers).

Bud and his wife, Sue, have become very active in the community and were co-recipients of the "1990 Humanitarian Award" from the St. Francis Children's Center. They co-chaired the 1989 Cerebral Palsy Telethon and lend their support and time to the Milwaukee Art Museum.

Selig was born July 30, 1934, in Milwaukee. He graduated from Milwaukee's Washington High School in 1952 and from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1956.

where he majored in American History and Political Science. In college, his roommate was current United States Senator and Milwaukee Bucks owner Herb Kohl. After two years in the Army, Selig returned to civilian life to work for his father in the automobile business. Selig presently retains ties to that industry by serving as President of the Selig Executive Lease Company.

A baseball fan as a youngster and today, Selig followed the old Milwaukee Brewers and Chicago Cubs. When Milwaukee joined the Major Leagues in 1953, Bud became a Braves fan. He subsequently became the Braves largest public stockholder in 1963, before selling his stock two years later when the Braves moved to Atlanta.

In December of 1964, he organized "Teams, Inc.", an organization formed to return Major League Baseball to Milwaukee. Bud led the group, which changed its name to "The Brewers" in 1965. The group arranged for the Chicago White Sox to play several regular season games at County Stadium in 1968, which proved to be a tremendous success.

After failing to purchase the White Sox in 1969 and witnessing the awarding of Major League expansion franchises to four other cities, Selig's efforts were finally rewarded on April 1, 1970, when a Seattle bankruptcy court awarded the Seattle franchise to Selig and his investors.

Bud has two daughters and two grand-daughters.

SAL BANDO

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT — BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Bando, 51, is entering his fifth year as the Milwaukee Brewers Senior Vice President — Baseball Operations. He now has the second longest tenure as the Brewers General Manager behind Harry Dalton who was in the role for 14 years. Bando's goal is to develop a strong farm system and provide a constant flow of talent to the big league level to ensure a competitive club in the American League on a yearly basis. He was named the Brewers General Manager on October 8, 1991. He previously had been a special assistant to the general manager with the Brewers since his retirement as a player following the 1981 season. Aside from working with the Brewers, Bando, along with Jon McGlocklin, former Milwaukee Bucks star, were founders of Bando-McGlocklin Capital Corporation. Their company provides real estate loans to businesses and is a licensed small business investment company (SBIC). Because of his full-time role with the Brewers, Sal is no longer involved in the company's day-to-day operations, but is on its' Board of Directors.

Bando initially joined the Brewers as a free agent on November 16, 1976, following eleven seasons as the Oakland Athletics All-Star third baseman and emotional leader. He played five seasons with the Brewers, batting .250 with 50 home runs and 243 RBI in 551 games. He hit 17 homers in each of his first two seasons and drove in 82 and 78 runs, respectively, in that same span. In 1978, he batted .285, his second highest career batting average. Ironically, in 1981, his final season, he played only 32 games, but became the regular third baseman in the pennant drive and batted .294 in the post-season.

While a member of the A's, "Captain Sal" had an outstanding career, playing a major role in Oakland's three consecutive World Championships from 1972-74. Sal still ranks as Oakland's All-Time leader in games played (1410) and RBIs (789), while ranking second in extra base hits (422), at bats (4991) and total bases (2107) and third in runs (725).

Bando attended Arizona State University, where he was a standout third baseman before being drafted by the Kansas City Athletics in 1965. His brother, Chris, also starred at ASU, played with the Cleveland Indians and is currently the Brewers third base coach.

Actively involved in the Milwaukee community, Bando is a member of the Boys and Girls Club and a member of the Advisory Board of the Wisconsin Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Sal and his wife, Sandy, are Co-Chairpersons for the Child Abuse Prevention (CAP) Fund, the Brewers official charity.

Born Salvatore Leonard Bando in Cleveland, Ohio, on February 13, 1944, Sal and his family reside in Mequon. Sal and Sandy have three sons, Sal, Jr., 25, Sonny, 21, a senior at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and Stefano, 16, is a sophomore at Marquette High School.

MICHAEL BUCEK

VICE PRESIDENT — NEW BALLPARK DEVELOPMENT

Michael, 35, is in his first season with the Brewers after being named the Brewers first VICE PRESIDENT — New Ballpark Development on January 5, 1996 . . . In this role, he will lead the business development of the Brewers new ballpark which will include corporate sponsorships, naming rights and the overall marketing of the new ballpark . . . Michael will also coordinate the closing of County Stadium, a job he did with the Chicago White Sox when they moved from Old Comiskey to New Comiskey Park . . . He spent seven years with the White Sox where he was the Director of Marketing and Broadcasting . . . Michael also spent three seasons with the Phoenix Firebirds of the Pacific Coast League from 1985-88 where he was the Vice President and General Manager in 1987-88 . . . He graduated from Illinois State University in 1982 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Communications . . . He was born in Chicago on April 6, 1960 . . . He and his wife, Sharon, have two children, a son Tyler, and a daughter, Ali.

BILL HAIG

VICE PRESIDENT — BROADCAST OPERATIONS

Bill, 61, is a well-respected member of the broadcasting field which he has been involved in for 41 years . . . As the Brewers Vice President of Broadcast Operations, he is responsible for all broadcast activities including the operation of the Brewers radio and television networks and television production . . . Before joining the Brewers in 1980, Bill was the Radio Manager of WTMJ, Inc. . . . He started WTKI-FM radio in Milwaukee which is one of the top stations in the area . . . ## FRED STANLEY

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Stanley, 47, is in his fifth season as the Brewers Director of Player Development. His farm clubs had the third highest winning percentage of all clubs last year (.550, 376-308). Fred has built a solid staff at the minor league level which emphasizes player development as well as building a winning mentality. Since 1990, Milwaukee has the best record of all clubs at the minor league level with a .551 winning percentage (2250-1833). In 1992, Stanley's charges earned the prestigious TOPPS Organization of the Year Award at the Annual Winter Meeting in Louisville, Kentucky.

Before moving into the front office on October 15, 1991, Stanley spent the '91 season as the first infield coach in the club's history and was responsible for Milwaukee's considerable defensive improvement in 1991. The Brewers finished ninth with a .981 fielding mark, finishing with 118 errors, after finishing last with a .976 fielding mark and 149 errors in 1990.

Stanley returned to the front office for the fourth time in his career since retiring as a player following the 1982 season. Before coming to Milwaukee, he was the Coordinator of Minor League Instruction with the Seattle Mariners from 1989-90; the Director of Baseball Operations with the Houston Astros from 1986-88 and Director of Instruction with the Oakland Athletics from 1983-85.

Stanley played 14 seasons in the major leagues with Seattle (1969), Milwaukee (1970), Cleveland (1972), New York (1973-1980) and Oakland (1981-82) in the American League and San Diego (1972) in the National League.

He participated in one Divisional Championship Series with the Athletics in 1981, four League Championship Series with the Yankees in 1976-80 and the Athletics in 1981 and three World Series with the Yankees in 1976-78.

A defensive specialist, he batted .216 in 815 major league games. Of his eight career home runs, two were for grand slams, one coming against the Brewers in 1973. Most of his career was spent as a middle infielder, but Stanley also played first base, third base and the outfield, while compiling a .972 lifetime fielding mark.

Stanley is a native of Farnhamville, Iowa and currently resides in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin, with his wife, Lynn, daughter, Tracie, 24, and son, Brian, 21.

KEN CALIFANO

DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Califano, 42, is now in his fourth season as the Brewers scouting director and continues to amass quality talent in the Brewers minor league system. He was named the Brewers Director of Scouting on October 7, 1992.

Califano is beginning his 16th season overall with the Brewers organization, having initially joined the club as an area scout in 1981, a position he held for nine seasons. He also held the position of National Crosschecker for pitchers in 1985. He was promoted to Northeast Supervisor in 1990 and has also been East Coast Supervisor in 1991 and East Coast Supervisor — Northern Region in 1992.

In his position as Director of Scouting, Califano is responsible for the researching, identifying and recommending of amateur players for the club through an effective scouting staff. He also assists in the drafting and signing of the college, junior college, high school, semi-pro and other amateur players for the organization, while scheduling the scouting staff to ensure that all prospects are observed and evaluated.

In 1995, Califano and his scouting staff had the ninth overall selection in the annual June Free Agent draft and chose power-hitting outfielder Geoff Jenkins from the University of Southern California. Jenkins was rated as fastest mover of all top picks by Baseball America in 1995 giving the Brewers a very bright future.

In 1994, Califano had the fourth choice overall in the draft and selected Arizona State third baseman Antone Williamson who will also be a big league star. It was the highest draft choice Milwaukee has had since 1985 when the club selected B.J. Surhoff with the first overall choice.

In 1993, Califano's draft received a "B" grade from Baseball America, the highest mark given to a single club. The Brewers also signed their top 10 draft picks from the '93 draft providing quality talent for the future.

Califano (Continued)

Califano was an area scout with the California Angels from 1978-80 before joining the Brewers. He spent five seasons in professional baseball as a lefthanded pitcher with the Baltimore Orioles (1973-75) and the Angels (1976-77).

Califano was born on August 24, 1953 in Baltimore, Maryland. He graduated from Milford Mill High School in Baltimore in 1971 and attended Essex Community College the following year. He was selected in the 21st round of the 1972 June Free Agent Draft by Baltimore.

Ken and his wife, Laurie, have a daughter, Kerri, 10, and son, D.J., 7. They currently live in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin.

TOM GAUSDEN

VICE PRESIDENT — ADMINISTRATION AND HUMAN RESOURCES

Tom Gausden enters his fifth season with the Milwaukee Brewers and his first full season as club's Vice President — Administration and Human Resources.

He originally joined the Brewers as their Director of Player Negotiations on December 9, 1991, the first person in club history to occupy such a position. He was promoted to his current title on June 27, 1995.

The 43-year old Gausden reports to Brewers President & Chief Executive Officer Allan H. (Bud) Selig and is directly responsible for handling all player contract negotiations and salary arbitration hearings for the club. He is also responsible for directing the club's Human Resources Department.

Before joining the Brewers, Gausden was Senior Manager — Employee Relations at the Wisconsin Electric Power Company (WEPCO), having been with the company since 1979. Gausden was a key member of management's negotiating team in collective bargaining agreements for WEPCO and was also the company's spokesperson in many of those negotiations.

Gausden, born on August 26, 1952 in McHenry, Illinois, graduated from Marian Central Catholic High School in Woodstock, Illinois in 1970. An outstanding prep athlete, he excelled on the gridiron, being named to the Chicago Tribune Prep All-Star Football Team, as well as All-Conference in 1969-70 as a wide receiver. He also earned two letters in baseball.

He is a 1974 graduate of Marquette University and a 1977 graduate of Marquette's Law School. Upon graduation from Law School, he became an associate at the New York office of Morgan, Lewis & Bockius which is also the firm of Chuck O'Connor, General Counsel of the Player Relations Committee. While an associate at Morgan, Lewis & Bockius, and as an attorney with WEPCO, Gausden handled many labor arbitration cases.

Gausden and his wife, Ginny, have four children, son, Brian, 18, and three daughters, Lindsay, 15, Lauren, 13 and Beth, 9. They reside in Mequon, Wisconsin.

BREWERS IN THE COMMUNITY

Community awareness is a responsibility of every major industry. In professional sports, an organization is often judged solely on its accomplishments on the field. Accordingly, the Milwaukee Brewers take great pride in our team's commitment to excellence. However, true success must go beyond the playing field. As an organization, we are compelled to live a philosophy of extending ourselves to the community at large by getting involved with the future of this city and state. Over the years, this organization has rolled up its sleeves and has worked especially hard at restoring the confidence in our youth. There are many other needs and the Brewers have attempted to recognize many of these, as well. While the Brewers have become involved in a number of rewarding local and national programs, we also acknowledge that we could not take part in many of them without the tremendous support from individuals and organizations statewide. To those of you who have meant so much to our organization, we thank you and eagerly await the opportunities in the coming years.

THE CHILDREN ARE OUR FUTURE

As our society changes, so do the problems it faces. In many ways, the hardships young people confronted a generation or two ago are no different for today's children. By the same token, these modern problems are more frightening because they challenge a large scope, at an even earlier age. Children have always needed guidance. Today, they need it even more.

CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION (CAP) FUND SCORES BIG WITH BREWERS

The Child Abuse Prevention (CAP) Fund was established in December, 1987 by Allan H. (Bud) Selig, the Milwaukee Brewers President and Chief Executive Officer, Thomas Bailey, attorney at law / County Supervisor and Jon E. Vice, President of Children's Hospital of Wisconsin. Together, they shared a vision in battling child abuse. The CAP Fund is the primary charity of the Milwaukee Brewers Baseball Club. Its mission is to provide financial support to child abuse prevention programs; to educate the general public about child abuse prevention; and to encourage community action throughout Wisconsin. During the year, the CAP Fund received thousands of dollars in proceeds from events held in conjunction with the ball club. The Safe at Home Picnic, held in early June featuring local celebrities and Brewers' players as waiters and waitresses during an on the field event is the largest of the fundraisers providing them with nearly $100,000.

BREWERS WIVES GO TO BAT FOR SOJOURNER TRUTH HOUSE and OTHER CHARITIES

The Milwaukee Brewers Players' Wives are involved in two special fundraisers. During the summer, the wives hold their annual tailgate party for the Sojourner Truth House. This charity serves battered women and children and provides shelter for them. In addition, the Wives Auction benefitted the Child Abuse Prevention (CAP) Fund, Sojourner Truth House, Penfield Children's Center, and the Autism Society of Southeastern Wisconsin. The auction is a popular event which features autographed items and other collectibles at a live and silent auction, with guest appearances by many of the players.

CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL A BIG WINNER

During the baseball season, the Brewers Players and Wives make frequent visits to Children's Hospital of Wisconsin to bring a smile to many children's faces.

STAY IN SCHOOL

One project that attracts plenty of attention from Brewers players during the season is visiting area schools. The Brewers emphasize education and the importance of staying in school. Players enjoy sharing their values of getting an education with youngsters. The Brewers try to visit both public and private institutions from grammar schools to universities. Players realize the responsibilities as role models to encourage children to stay in school, get an education and to have a purpose.

BREWERS YOUTH LEAGUE HAS A P.A.L.

The Milwaukee Brewers, the Police Athletic League (PAL) and the United Community Center have successfully introduced area youngsters to the Youth League. The league, now in its fifth summer, features two leagues of ten teams each with youngsters ranging in ages from 9 to 12. Each summer, PAL and the Community Center opens with baseball clinics around the city. The schedule concludes with a championship contest at County Stadium. PAL and the Community Center provide the day-to-day supervision and instruction of the rules of the game. Several Brewers players participate in this endeavor, as the teams are named after the players.

BREWERS CARE DAY

In the annual "Brewers Care Day," every player is escorted by a front office employee to either a school, hospital, or youth center to visit the kids and teach them the importance of staying in school and staying off of drugs. Always a popular day for the youth as they get to meet a big league player who knows the benefits of education and anti-drugs. The visits to the hospitals and youth centers certainly do wonders to bring smiles to the faces of kids and adults alike.

STUDENT ACHIEVER AWARD PROGRAM

For ten years, the Lynde and Harry Bradley Foundation, in conjunction with the Milwaukee Brewers and the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel, have sponsored an incentive program for area students. In special recognition, students from eight counties in southeastern Wisconsin are eligible for four tickets to a Brewers' game, a certificate and recognition in a special section of the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel. Students in the top six percent of their class in academic achievement and academic effort are cited. This is open to students in grades 7-12 with over 20,000 students in more than 500 schools being eligible.

HENRY AARON YOUTH SCHOLARSHIP

The Hank Aaron Youth Leadership Fund provides two scholarships to area students who will be entering college. These students must maintain a 3.0 grade point average through their high school years. In the past, Henry Aaron has personally presented the award to the recipients.

LEARNING THE FUNDAMENTALS

Once again, free clinics were offered to youngsters through the summer. Some of the participating programs included the Beckum-Stapleton Little League, Milwaukee County Parks Recreation and Culture Department, the Boys' and Girls' Clubs of Greater Milwaukee, Felix Mantilla Little League and the Boys Scouts of America. Youngsters had the opportunity to learn the finer points of playing baseball from several Milwaukee Brewers players and coaches. The instruction was invaluable, with an emphasis on sportsmanship and goal-setting as well as the proper techniques of hitting, pitching, fielding and baserunning. All clinics were open to the general public.

WINTER CARAVAN

Every year in January, a handful of Brewers take the show on the road to various cities in Wisconsin. Large crowd gatherings enjoy talking baseball with the current and former players on the tour in places including Eau Claire, Stevens Point, Beloit, Racine, Rice Lake, LaCrosse, Watertown and Antigo among the many stops.

BREWERS SPEAKERS' BUREAU

A truly valuable part of our community relations department is the Milwaukee Brewers Speakers' Bureau. Several members of the front office frequently speak at various events, covering nearly every topic concerning major league baseball. Last year, the Speakers' Bureau raised over $11,000 for the CAP Fund. The Speakers' Bureau consists of the following front office employees:

- Sal Bando, Senior Vice President - Baseball Operations
- John Barnes, Director of Ticket Operations
- Geoff Campion, Manager Gold Club
- Mike Downs, Director of Community Relations
- Jon Greenberg, Director of Media Relations
- Scott Martens, Assistant Director of Scouting
- Terry Ann Peterson, Director of Stadium Administration
- Tonya Powell, Ticket Account Sales Representative
- Laurel Prieb, Vice President Corporate Affairs
- Pepi Randolph, Assistant General Counsel
- Dean Renniecke, Director of Corporate Sales
- Allan H. (Bud) Selig, President/ CEO
- Wendy Selig-Prieb, Vice President and General Counsel
- Brian Small, Director of Baseball Administration
- Tiffany Stone, Manager of Corporate Sales

BREWERS FESTIVAL AT THE BALLPARK

The Milwaukee Brewers fans are treated to a fun day at County Stadium where they have the opportunity to participate in various events at the park and on the field. They are able to attain autographs from all of the players, attend clinics teaching fielding, hitting, and pitching, run around the bases, play games on the Brewers Boardwalk, be entertained by a clown, magician, face painter, traveling jazz band and Bernie Brewer, and enjoy the regular baseball fare of hot dogs and beverages.

BREWERS CARNIVAL

Every year at Auer Avenue School playground various Brewers players and front office personnel provide entertainment and clinics to the kids of Milwaukee. Carnival games are played, as well as fielding, hitting, and pitching clinics throughout the morning. Autographs and pep talks are given by the players encouraging the youth to work hard and play hard.

THE CAP FUND Official Charity of the Milwaukee Brewers

The Child Abuse Prevention (CAP) Fund, official charity of the Milwaukee Brewers, stresses the importance of preventing child abuse.

Since its beginning in 1987, the CAP Fund has been unlike any other initiative. Funding innovative, primary child abuse prevention programs throughout Wisconsin, the CAP Fund exists to support Wisconsin's children, parents and families. To date, the CAP Fund has granted over $1.6 million to 90 non-government community-based prevention programs. These programs focus on specific ways to help through parenting programs, in-home parent aide support, nurturing programs for preschool children and their parents, support groups, and educational information about prevention.

By increasing awareness, education and support, programs supported by the CAP Fund are safeguarding thousands of Wisconsin's children every year.

THE MILWAUKEE BREWERS LOGO

On January 15, 1994, the Milwaukee Brewers unveiled their first new logo since the 1978 season. In a ceremony at the BrewersFest fan convention, new uniforms and accessories including the modern, yet old-fashioned logo were presented to Brewers fans. The development of the new logo began in November of 1992, when the Brewers approached Major League Baseball Properties Design Services about creating a "new look" as the Brewers approach the 21st century. The two parties worked diligently through the summer of 1993 and the result is a logo which will be worn with pride by Brewers players, coaches and fans for years to come.

RADIO INFORMATION

BOB UECKER

RADIO ANNOUNCER

This season, Bob Uecker, the illustrious "Voice of the Brewers," will commemorate his 26th year of broadcasting major league baseball for his hometown. Uecker returns to do play-by-play on WTMJ-Radio and the Brewers Radio Network.

Affectionately known across the country as "Mr. Baseball," Uecker is in his 17th season as the club's number one announcer. Bob is well-respected in the industry, earning Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year five times during his career.

A versatile talent, Uecker credits go far beyond guest appearances and play-by-play. In 1985, Bob launched a television acting career as one of the stars of ABC's sitcom "Mr. Belvedere" which put 100 episodes into syndication.

He also hosted two syndicated television shows, "Bob Uecker's Wacky World of Sports" and "Bob Uecker's War of the Stars." He was one of the Miller Lite All-Stars in popular commercials for Lite Beer from Miller. Bob was type cast as a radio announcer in the film "Major League" filmed at County Stadium, and stole the show in the sequel, "Major League II."

A 1969 visit with Al Hirt, a renown jazz trumpeter from New Orleans, altered Bob's life. Hirt opened a small night club in Atlanta and asked Bob to come on stage. Don Rickles was the headliner. Uecker displayed a dead-pan stare that challenged and broke up the satirical comic. Hirt was so impressed he arranged an appearance for Bob on the Tonight Show, starring Johnny Carson.

Uecker became one of Carson's favorite guests, making some 100 appearances before the Late Night host retired in 1992.

Uecker became a national celebrity. ABC Network took advantage of Uecker's popularity. He made appearances on the "Superstars" and "The Midnight Special" which opened the door for more elaborate appearances.

The snowball continued to roll for Bob. Because of his experience broadcasting Brewers games both on radio and television, Uecker gained national recognition as a play-by-play announcer for ABC Sports coverage of Monday Night Baseball, the League Championship Series and World Series. He will again work with Bob Costas on NBC's telecasts of Major League Baseball including the All-Star Game and the playoffs.

Uecker's accomplishments weren't limited to the electronic medium. A former catcher who spent six seasons in the majors, Bob authored a book entitled Catcher In the Wry, a humorous look back on the years he spent with the Milwaukee-Atlanta Braves, St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies. One of his career highlights as a player came in 1964, when he was a member of the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals.

With all his national attention and success, Bob never forgot his roots. He lent his services in support of several local organizations, including the United Performing Arts Fund, the Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer Fund, the Milwaukee Symphony, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee and Big Brothers/ Big Sisters. In addition, he's an advocate for such organizations as cystic fibrosis, heart disease and the Wisconsin Department of Tourism.

For his efforts, Uecker was inducted into the Wisconsin Performing Artists Hall of Fame in 1993. The Hall of Fame was established in 1983 to honor nationally and internationally known performing artists with Wisconsin ties. In 1994, he was elected to the Wisconsin Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame. In January of 1995, he earned the "Big B.A.T." Award from the Baseball Assistance Team at a dinner in New York City for his continuing support of former major league stars who are in need of support.

Bob and his wife, Judy, make their home in Menomonee Falls.

DID YOU KNOW . . . On August 29, 1992, the Brewers set an American League record with 31 hits and 26 singles in a 22-2 trouncing of the Blue Jays. The Brewers also set a club record with 22 runs, 38 total bases and a 20-run winning margin.

JIM POWELL

RADIO ANNOUNCER

Jim Powell begins his first season as a member of the Brewers broadcast team. His baseball experience comes from two stints with the Minnesota Twins in a reserve role in 1993 and '94 as well as extensive experience on the minor league level.

He was the play-by-play announcer for the Charlotte Knights in 1990-91 and '95. He also called games for the Columbia Mets from 1987-89 and 1993-94.

Powell did play-by-play for the University of South Carolina baseball program in 1989 and '94 as well as the University of Georgia baseball team in 1985-86.

Powell was also the radio play-by-play man for the South Carolina Football and Basketball programs from 1993-95 and hosted the Coach's shows for those two sports on television.

Powell also did play-by-play for Davidson College basketball in 1990.

A three-time Sportscaster of the Year in South Carolina, Powell earned the award in 1990, '91 and '95.

Jim graduated from the University of Georgia in 1986 as a National Merit Scholar. He is married to Emmy.

KENT SOMMERFELD

RADIO PRODUCER

Kent Sommerfeld is in his 11th season as the Producer of Milwaukee Brewers radio broadcasts. A Wisconsin native, Kent has had a wide range of experience in the broadcasting field.

He has also been the radio producer / director for the Marquette University radio network since 1990 and hosted an interview segment during the team's pre-game programming during the 1995-96 season. Kent attended the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater where he earned a degree in communications and broadcast journalism. While at Whitewater, Kent was the sports director of Cable TV 6, a wing of the Whitewater's cable system as well as the host of "Sports Chat", a sports talk show on WSUW-Radio.

He has also worked with ESPN's technical staff on several events in the Midwest. Kent also worked at KRBC-TV, the NBC affiliate in Abilene, Texas as a sports/ news photojournalist.

Born in Milwaukee, Kent attended Brookfield Central High School. He and his wife, -eleni-, have a son, Peter, and reside in the Milwaukee area.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Bob Betts, is in his 21st season as the Brewers Public Address Announcer. Bob has announced 1,546 games as the Brewers Public Address announcer. On June 14, 1995 Bob announced his 1,500th game for the Brewers and was honored in pregame ceremonies on "Bob Betts Day". Born and raised in Iowa, Bob has been in broadcasting for most of his adult life, coming to Milwaukee in 1964. He worked at several local radio stations as well as recording commercials. Most recently, he was the General Manager at WMSE-FM in Milwaukee before retiring late in 1994. He and his wife, Rita, live in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin. They have three children: Jim of Tampa, Julie of New York and John of Des Moines.

Handling press room and service room hospitality duties in 1996 will be Marty Wellskopf and Dick Collenburg. Wellskopf will return for his 19th season serving the media. He resides in Wauwatosa. Collenburg is entering his sixth season with the Brewers. He and his wife, Pat, reside in Milwaukee. Pinch-hitting occasionally will be the venerable Ed Wellskopf, who entered semi-retirement after the 1990 season. Ed is a press box veteran dating back to the Milwaukee Braves days. He and his wife, Dorothy, live in West Allis.

1996 BREWERS RADIO NETWORK

Forty-three markets throughout Wisconsin and Michigan will carry Milwaukee Brewers Baseball in 1996. Once again, WTMJ Radio 620 (AM), in Milwaukee, will be the Brewers flagship station. Considered the sports broadcasting leader in Wisconsin, WTMJ Radio is also the flagship station for the Milwaukee Bucks basketball team and the Green Bay Packers of the National Football League. All 162 regular season games and any post-season games the Brewers may play this year will be carried, as well as 18 spring training games.

TELEVISION INFORMATION

JIM PASCHKE

TELEVISION ANNOUNCER

Jim Paschke, one of the most respected baseball announcers in the game, returns for his second straight year in the Brewers television booth and his seventh overall. He was back in the booth last year and also handled the Brewers play-by-play duties from 1987-91.

Paschke, the Milwaukee Bucks television play-by-play man for the past 10 years, has a strong background, not only in the Milwaukee area, but on a national front, handling sideline analysis in the defunct United States Football League for ABC Sports Network and CART-ASA-NASCAR auto racing.

A versatile talent, Paschke, broke into the business in 1973 at KNIA-Radio in Knoxville, Iowa. He began his play-by-play career with high school football and basketball and later at Central College of Pella, Iowa. In addition, he handled the Iowa State Boys' High School Basketball Tournament. Paschke went on to KTIV-TV in Sioux City, Iowa and WRAU-TV in Peoria, Illinois before moving to Madison's WMTV where he handled the play-by-play duties for the Wisconsin Badgers football and basketball programs.

In 1980, he joined WITI-TV 6 in Milwaukee as a sportscaster. He also got an opportunity to do play-by-play for the Milwaukee Admirals of the International Hockey League and for Marquette University basketball. He also worked baseball on radio for the Beloit Brewers, Milwaukee's Class A affiliate in the Midwest League in 1992-93.

Paschke, who co-hosted WTMJ-AM Radio's Talkin' Baseball show this past off-season. He has also hosted the Emmy Award winning "Talking Sports" on Sunday nights. He was honored by the Badger Chapter of American Women in Radio and Television as the 1985 Newscaster of the Year. Paschke is a four-time United Press International and a two-time Milwaukee Press Club award winner for producing the Best TV Sports Report when he was at TV 6.

A native of Bloomington, Minnesota, he attended the University of Minnesota and the Brown Institute in Minneapolis. Jim and his wife, Debbie, have a son, Michael and reside in Grafton, Wisconsin.

BILL SCHROEDER

TELEVISION ANNOUNCER

After a splendid debut season, Bill Schroeder returns as the color commentator on Brewers television broadcasts. Very popular with the fans, Schroeder was a natural in his first experience in the television booth. He is quite familiar with the business of talking baseball, co-hosting "Baseball Sunday" in 1994 and "Talkin' Baseball" on WTMJ-Radio this past off-season.

After his playing career concluded in 1990, Schroeder became a stockbroker for Paine Webber in the Milwaukee area. In addition, he conducts the annual Bill Schroeder Celebrity Fall Golf Classic at the Americana in Lake Geneva, Wisconsin for the benefit of the American Cancer Society.

A lifetime .240 hitter, Schroeder spent eight seasons in the big leagues with the Brewers and the California Angels. He enjoyed a career best .332 batting average in 1987. As an intricate member of Team Streak, Bill caught Juan Nieves' no-hitter on April 15, 1987 in the midst of the Brewers major league record tying 13-0 start. In addition, he clubbed a career high 14 home runs and had 42 RBI in a back up role that season. Later that season, Schroeder had his finest moment. On June 14, before family and friends at New York's Yankee Stadium, he collected four hits including a game winning two-run homer off ace Dave Righetti.

In 1988, he was named the recipient of the Athletes For Youth Good Guy Award while in 1984, he earned the club's Unsung Hero Award.

Schroeder graduated from West Windsor Plainsboro High School in Princeton, New Jersey, where he earned All-State honors his junior and senior years. He attended Clemson University leading the Tigers to the Atlantic Coast Conference title in 1978 and '79. Born in Baltimore, Maryland and raised in Princeton, Bill was traded to the California Angels following the 1988 campaign before retiring in 1990. He and his wife, Donna, have two daughters, Lindsey and Mallory and a son, Billy and reside in Hales Corners, Wisconsin.

MEDICAL AND CLUBHOUSE STAFF

DR. DENNIS SULLIVAN

MEDICAL DIRECTOR

Sullivan, 48, has been a team physician for the Milwaukee Brewers since 1981. He is the club's orthopaedic surgeon. Sullivan did his undergraduate work at Stanford University in Palo Alto, California, graduating in 1969. He then earned his medical degree from the Medical College of Wisconsin in 1974. Sullivan performed an internship at Milwaukee County General Hospital in 1974-75. During his residence period, Sullivan worked at the Medical College of Wisconsin and a variety of affiliated hospitals in the Milwaukee area before going into private practice in 1979 with the Milwaukee Orthopaedic Group, Ltd. He is currently a clinical instructor at the Medical College. Sullivan was born on March 4, 1947 in Boston, Massachusetts. He and his family live in River Hills.

DR. TED GERTEL

TEAM PHYSICIAN—ORTHOPEDICS

Gertel, 39, has been an orthopaedic consultant for the Milwaukee Brewers since he joined the Milwaukee Orthopaedic Group, Ltd. in 1989. He specializes in arthroscopic surgery and treatment of sports injuries. Gertel graduated from Harvard College in 1979. He was class president and valedictorian of the Class of 1983 at the New York School of Medicine. After completing a five-year residency in orthopaedic surgery at the University of Connecticut, Gertel received advance training in Sports Medicine at the University of Minnesota. He served as a team physician, and he learned state of the art surgical techniques for shoulder surgery and knee ligament reconstruction. Gertel is Chief of Orthopaedic Surgery at Sinai Samaritan Medical Center, and he is the Associate Medical Director of the Sports Medicine Institute. He and his wife, Joan, reside in Mequon with their four children, Alex, Aaron, Jason and Diana.

DR. JOHN MIDTLING

TEAM PHYSICIAN—MEDICAL

Midtling, 45, is in his third season as a team physician with the Milwaukee Brewers. He is professor and chairman of the Department of Family Medicine at the Medical College of Wisconsin. Midtling founded the primary care sports medicine program at the Medical College in 1991 and has provided medical coverage for the Milwaukee Ballet since 1990. A Wisconsin native, Dr. Midtling graduated from the University of Minnesota School of Medicine in 1976. He completed his internship and residency at the University of Minnesota in 1979. Prior to returning to Wisconsin in 1989, he was on the faculty of the University of California, San Francisco School of Medicine and served as the Medical Director and Chief of Staff of a University of California affiliate hospital. He and his wife Kaye, and two daughters Anna and Emilie, reside in Chenequa.

DID YOU KNOW . . . With John Jaha's 10th stolen base on September 24, 1992, the Brewers had 11 players with 10-or-more steals, which tied the Major League record held by the 1901 Philadelphia Phillies.

DR. CRAIG YOUNG

TEAM PHYSICIAN—MEDICAL

Young, 33, is in his third season as a team physician with the Milwaukee Brewers. He is an assistant professor and the Medical Director of Sports Medicine at the Medical College of Wisconsin. Dr. Young was born in Inglewood, California and graduated from the University of California, San Diego School of Medicine in 1988. He completed a residency in family medicine at UCLA in 1991 and a sports medicine fellowship at the Cleveland Clinic in 1992. Dr. Young is board certified in both family practice and sports medicine. He is engaged to Sharon Busey. He currently resides in Menomonee Falls.

JOHN ADAM

HEAD TRAINER

Adam, 41, is in his 16th season as the Milwaukee Brewers trainer. Before joining the Brewers organization in 1978 as a minor league trainer, Adam was a sixth round draft choice in 1972 as a pitcher in the Baltimore Orioles minor league system. He says his greatest thrills in baseball were the 1982 World Series and being the American League's trainer in the 1988 All-Star game. He was also an American League trainer for the 1994 All-Star Game in Pittsburgh. Adam was the chairman of the Wisconsin Athletic Trainers Association auction in Milwaukee in 1993. Adam earned an A.A. Degree from East Los Angeles College and graduated from Cal-State University at Dominguez Hills in 1981. Born in Gardena, California on June 20, 1954, John and his wife, Patty and their daughters, Jacqueline and Ellison, make their home in Chandler, Arizona during the off-season.

AL PRICE

ASSISTANT TRAINER

Price, 37, is in his eighth season as the Milwaukee Brewers assistant trainer and 17th season overall in the Brewers organization. He began as a trainer in the farm system in 1979, before spending his final four minor league seasons at Triple A with Vancouver of the Pacific Coast League ('84-86) and Denver of the American Association ('87). Price has a B.S. Degree in Physical Education from Washington State University in Pullman, Washington, where he also was a student trainer. He also did post graduate work at Western Washington University where he earned a Master of Education in Exercise Science. Al was born in Colfax, Washington on April 14, 1958. He and his wife, Debbie, live in Bellingham, Washington during the off-season.

DID YOU KNOW

... Cal Eldred became the first Brewers pitcher to lead the league in innings pitched as he threw 258.0 innings in 1993.

... In 1993, Greg Vaughn became the first Brewer since 1986 to belt 30 home runs in a season.

... With Graeme Lloyd's first appearance on April 11, 1993, he became the first Australian pitcher in the Major Leagues. He and catcher Dave Nilsson comprised the first Australian battery on April 14, 1993.

JOHN REWOLINSKI

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Rewolinski, 35, is in his third season as the Brewers Strength and Conditioning Coach. He also works with the Brewers minor league players in the same capacity. He joined the Brewers after spending five years as the Fitness and Rehabilitation Coordinator at the Southridge Athletic Club where he earned the respect and recommendation of many professional athletes. John has also worked as the Strength Coach for the Royal Saudi Air Force in Saudi Arabia as a member of the United States Sports Academy. In that role, he helped improve the motor skills of the Air Force. John also was the coach of the Saudi Air Force Weightlifting Team which took second place in the Saudi Arabian Military Games. He graduated from Milwaukee's Hamilton High School in 1978 and from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee with a degree in Allied Health in 1985. John was born on October 11, 1960. He is single and resides in Milwaukee.

TONY MIGLIACCIO

EQUIPMENT & CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Migliaccio, 33, is in his 11th year as the Brewers Equipment Manager. Tony began his baseball career as a batboy in 1978. He became the Brewers assistant clubhouse manager in 1982 and remained in the position through 1985 when he became the equipment manager. Migliaccio is a graduate of Milwaukee's Pius XI High School where he played baseball. He has an Associate Degree from Central Arizona College. He also attended Arizona State University and the University of Wisconsin at Milwaukee. Tony was born in Milwaukee on December 17, 1962.

JIM KSCINSKI

VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Kscinski, 49, has been the Brewers visiting clubhouse manager since the club arrived in Milwaukee in 1970. He originally started in baseball in 1963 as a batboy/clubhouse attendant in the visiting clubhouse with the Milwaukee Braves. Jim graduated in 1964 from St. John's Cathedral High School in Milwaukee where he played basketball and football. He graduated from Dominican College in Racine, Wisconsin in 1968 with a bachelors degree in business administration. At Dominican, he was a Little College Honorable Mention All-American in basketball where he was the school's all-time leading scorer. He was born in Milwaukee on November 4, 1946. Jim and his wife, Joanne, reside in Mequon.

DID YOU KNOW

... There have been eight members of the Milwaukee Brewers who have reached the 100 RBI mark during a single season, led by Cecil Cooper, who accomplished the feat four times. Other players who surpassed the 100 RBI mark more than once included Gorman Thomas and Robin Yount three times, and Ben Oglivie and George Scott twice apiece.

MEDICAL TERMINOLOGY

AC Joint - Acromioclavicular joint; joint near the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; Shoulder separations occur at this joint.

Abcess - An infection which produces pus.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome - Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) - A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Anterior Talofibular Ligament - A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.

Arteriogram - A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram - X-ray technique for joints using air and / or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope - An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy - A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Avulsion - The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

Bone Scan - An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labelled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Bursa - A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur. This minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and a bone.

Capsule - An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and may contain ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage - Smooth, slippery substance which allows joint surfaces to glide over each other and prevents two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

CAT Scan (Computerized Axial Tomography) - Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

Cervical Vertebrae - Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.

Chondromalacia - Softening and cracking of joint cartilage. Most common in the cartilage behind the kneecap (chondromalacia patella).

Clavicle - Collarbone.

Concussion - Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion - An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Costochondral - Cartilage that connects the bones of the ribcage from the sternum.

Cyst - Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Deltoid Ligament - Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

Deltoid Muscle - Large muscle forming the shoulder cap.

Disc, Intervertebral - A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation - Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Effusion - Accumulation of fluid in various spaces in the body. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Dorsum - The back; the back surface of any part.

Electromyogram (EMG) - Test to determine nerve function.

Epicondylitis - Inflammation in the side of the elbow frequently due to overuse.

Ethyl Chloride - "Cold Spray", a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

Eversion - Action of the ankle turning outward.

Femur - Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula - Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Fracture - Breach of continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Medical Terminology (Continued)

Glenohumeral - The shoulder joint; consists of the glenoid socket, capsule, head of the humerus and labrum. A ball and socket joint.

Glenoid - Cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to form the shoulder girdle.

Grade One Injury - A mild injury in which ligament, tendon or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or confused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury - A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn, which causes appreciable limitation of function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury - A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly and in some cases totally torn or otherwise disrupted causing a loss of function.

Groin - Junction of the thigh and abdomen; location of muscles that rotate, flex and adduct the hip.

Hamstring - Group of muscles that run from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee.

Hematoma - Mass produced by accumulations of blood.

Hip Pointer - Contusion to the iliac crest.

Humerus - Bone of the arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hyperextension - Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Illiotalband - A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the outer side of the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.

Inflammation - The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and / or loss of function.

Impingement Syndrome - Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder. The most common (throwing) arm injury, which represents many pathologies and generally involves supraspinatus overuse.

Internal Rotation - Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Labrum (Labrum Glenoidale) - The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lip-edge structure which helps make the shoulder socket more stable.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL) - Ligament of the knee along the lateral aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.

Lesion - Wound, injury, or tumor. Anatomical or pathological abnormality.

Ligament - Band of the fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae - Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the dorsal vertebrae above and the sacrum below, forming the lumbosacral joint.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) - Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

Malleolus - Rounded projection on either side of the ankle joint; the lateral malleolus in the end of the fibula and the medial malleolus in the end of the tibia.

Medial - To the inside of the body.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) - Ligament of the knee along the medial aspect that connects the femur to the tibia.

Meniscectomy - An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus - Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage". There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Metacarpals - Five bones of the hand between the wrist and fingers.

Metatarsals - Five bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Myositis - Inflammation of the muscles.

Neuritis - Inflammation of a nerve.

Overuse Syndromes - A result of repetitive stress to body structures.

Parasthesia - Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella - The kneecap.

Patella Tendinitis - Inflammation of the patella tendon; also known as "jumpers knee".

Patellofemoral Joint - Articulation of the kneecap and femur. Inflammation of this joint can occur through: 1) acute injury to the patella, 2) overuse from excessive running particularly if there is an associated knee weakness, 3) chronic wear and tear of the knee, 4) as a result of poor foot mechanics. Patellofemoral irritation can lead to chondromalacia, which in its most chronic condition, could require surgery.

Peroneal Muscles - Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the ankle. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.

Phalanx - Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural is phalanges.

Phlebitis - Inflammation of a vein.

Plantar fascia - A tight band of connective tissue beneath the arch of the foot.

Plica - Fold of tissue in the joint lining.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament - A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament may necessitate reconstruction and require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Quadricep Muscles "Quads" - A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Reconstruction - Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

Ross River Fever - Disease native to southern Australia contracted through a mosquito bite. The disease is not contagious and has symptoms of high fever, nausea, muscle aches and a cough. The disease settles into the joints causing severe pain. Severe cases can last as long as six months.

Rotator Cuff - Comprised of the tendons of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome - A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress and the four stages are: 1) Tendinitis; 2) Fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation; 3) A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm; and 4) A complete tear of 1 cm or more.

Sacrum - Vertebrae located in the back of the pelvis. Part of the lumbosacral and sacroiliac joints.

SC Joint - Sternoclavicular joint; articulation of the collar bone with the sternum.

Scapula - Shoulder blade.

Sciatica - Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the back of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve - Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the lower back and thigh and lower leg; it is the largest and longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint - A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Spasm - Strong, involuntary muscle contractions; cramps.

Spondylitis - Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.

Sprain - Injury resulting from a stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum - The breast bone.

Steroids - Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances.

Strain - Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture - A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Subluxation - Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Superior - In anatomy, the upper of two parts; toward the top or above.

Talus - The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Tarsals - Group of seven bones of the back of the foot (calcaneus, talus, navicular, cuboid and three cuneiforms).

Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ) - The joint connecting the jaw to the skull.

Tendinitis - Inflammation of the tendon and / or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon - Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Thoracic Vertebrae - Group of twelve vertebrae located at the back of the chest.

Tibia - Larger of the two bones of the leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Trachea - The windpipe.

Trapezius - Flat, triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps - Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

Ulna - Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar nerve - Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Wrist - The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetral, lunate and scaphoid).

Zygoma - The cheekbone.

NOTE: This list is not meant to be all inclusive nor should it be used as a substitute for physician's diagnosis and / or description of an injury or illness. For further definitions, please refer to the Stedman's Pocket Medical Dictionary published by Williams and Wilkins.

BASEBALL BASICS

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW

All night games must be called at 1 a.m. local time. However, if an inning is started prior to 1 a.m., it can be completed. Other curfew restrictions are contained in American League Regulation 3.4.

BATTING-PITCHING QUALIFICATIONS

To qualify for the American League batting championship, a player must have 502 or more plate appearances. (This is equivalent to at least 3.1 for each of the 162 scheduled games). Pitchers must work 162 or more innings to qualify for the earned run average title.

"BLOWN SAVE" DEFINITION

When a relief pitcher enters a game in a save situation and departs with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead, he is charged with a "blown save." If the save opportunity still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity. If the pitcher has not given up the lead when he leaves the game, though the save opportunity may no longer exist, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAKS

A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

DESIGNATED HITTER RULE

A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher. The designated hitter must be selected and be included on the lineup cards presented to the umpire-in-chief prior to the game. Failure to do so precludes the use of a designated hitter for that game. The designated hitter is locked into the batting order but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or pinch-runner, who in turn becomes the designated hitter. The designated hitter, while still in the game may be used defensively, but the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player, thus terminating the designated hitter role. The designated hitter is eligible for all American League batting titles.

DETERMINING A "MAJOR LEAGUE YEAR"

172 days constitute a full year in the major leagues.

EARNED-RUNS RULE

The determination of an earned-run is as follows: An earned-run is a run for which the pitcher is held accountable. In determining earned-runs, the inning should be reconstructed without the errors and passed balls; and the benefit of the doubt should always be given to the pitcher in determining which bases would have been reached with errorless play.

Until 1969, the reliever could not be charged with an earned-run if he entered the game after the side could have been retired but for an error, no matter how many runs he subsequently gave up that inning. Now, runs scored by batters who reach base off the reliever are charged as earned on that pitcher's record. They are not, however, charged as earned against the team as a whole. Therefore, a discrepancy may occur between the total earned-runs charged against the individual pitchers of that team.

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS

The individual fielding champions shall be the fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

(1) A catcher must have participated as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season;

(2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season;

(3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION: If another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

FIGURING BASEBALL STATISTICS

Batting Average—divide the total number of safe hits by the total times at bat.

Slugging Percentage—divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat.

Pitchers Earned Run Average—multiply the total earned runs by 9, and divide the result by the total number of innings pitched.

Fielding Percentage—divide the total putouts and assists by the total putouts, assists and errors.

Won-Loss Percentage—divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

On-Base Percentage—divide hits plus total bases on balls plus hit-by-pitcher by at-bats plus total bases on balls plus hit-by-pitcher and sacrifice flies (for purpose of this percentage ignore being awarded first base on interference or obstruction).

FIGURING MAGIC NUMBERS

To determine a team's Magic Number in the pennant race, compute the number of games remaining, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

PLAYER LIMITS

40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40. The minimum number of active players maintained by each club throughout the championship season shall be 24.

REGULATION GAME

A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because:

- (1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or
- (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the first of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS

A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues, or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active player roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 24-player limit (excluding time in military service).

SAVE RULE

Saves shall be awarded to relief pitchers under the following criteria: Rule (10:20) tells the official scorer to credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all 3 of the following conditions:

- (1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club;
- (2) He is not the winning pitcher; and
- (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions: (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than 3 runs and pitches for at least 1 inning; or (b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, or at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is 1 of the first 2 batsmen he faces); or (c) He pitches effectively for at least 3 innings.

SCORING RULE — PINCH HITTERS

A player shall be considered a pinch hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. (If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up). A substitute hitter for a designated hitter is both a pinch hitter and a designated hitter on his first time at bat. On subsequent trips to the plate he is a designated hitter only.

TIE GAME

A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the League standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

WILD CARD TEAMS

The team with the best record that has not won its division is eligible for the playoffs as the wild card team. In the American League Division Series, that club will play the division winner with the best record while the other two division winners will face each other in a best-of-five series with the winners advancing to the American League Championship Series.

BREWERS TO COMMEMORATE MILWAUKEE'S SESQUICENTENNIAL

In recognition of the 150th Anniversary of the City of Milwaukee being celebrated in 1996, the Milwaukee Brewers are wearing a special patch on their uniforms.

Baseball has been an integral part of the quality of life in Milwaukee since the city's first team, the Milwaukee Grays, took the field in 1878. The Grays were a National League club which stayed in Milwaukee for one season posting a 15-45 record.

Other professional clubs to play in Milwaukee were the Milwaukee Cream City's of the Union League (1884), the Milwaukee Brewers of the American Association (1891), the Milwaukee Brewers of the American League (1901), the Milwaukee Brewers again of the American Association (1902-1952), the Milwaukee Braves of the National League (1953-65) and the current Milwaukee Brewers (1970-Present).

Many great players from Hugh Duffy to Henry Aaron to Robin Yount have worn uniforms representing Milwaukee around the United States. The Brewers are proud to carry the tradition of Milwaukee throughout the country during the Sesquicentennial.

HISTORY OF THE MILWAUKEE BREWERS

1970—Thanks to the dedicated efforts of Milwaukee Brewers, Inc., an organization formed by Allan H. "Bud" Selig and Edmund Fitzgerald several years earlier to return major league baseball to the city, the "Seattle Pilots" franchise was acquired on April 1st . . . "We're Big League Again" proclaims a banner headline in the Milwaukee Sentinel . . . Team renamed "Brewers", a popular name in Milwaukee and a tribute to the city's long association with the Brewing industry . . . The Brewers, managed by Dave Bristol, acquired Russ Snyder and Max Alvis in their first trade on April 4th . . . Brewers' first game played at County Stadium on April 7th before 37,237 enthusiastic fans as Lew Krausse drops a 12-0 decision to Andy Messersmith and the Angels . . . Opening Day lineup as follows: Tommy Harper, 2B; Russ Snyder, CF; Mike Hegan, 1B; Danny Walton, LF; Steve Hovley, RF; Jerry McNertney, C; Max Alvis, 3B; Ted Kubiak, SS; and Lew Krausse, P . . . John O'Donoghue defeats the White Sox in Chicago on April 11th for the team's first win ever . . . Bob Bolin fans 10 as the Brewers earn their first home win on May 6th over the Red Sox . . . Davey May was acquired from the Orioles in June . . . Kubiak drives in 7 runs, still a team record, at Fenway Park on July 18th . . . 69-year-old Milt Mason, as "Bernie Brewer", goes into a trailer atop the stadium scoreboard in late June, vowing not to descend until the team draws a home crowd of 40,000, which occurs on August 16th . . . Harper becomes only the fifth player in history to hit more than 30 homers and steal more than 30 bases during the same season with totals of 31 and 38, respectively . . . Walton, an early season sensation, becomes the hero of the "Brew Crew", a young, enthusiastic group of fans who populate the left field bleachers . . . Brewers draw 933,690 and finish tied for fourth with a 65-97 record.

1971—Famous Frank "Trader" Lane replaces Marvin Milkes as Director of Baseball Operations . . . Team wins first season opener on April 7th, a 7-2 win at Minnesota behind Marty Pattin . . . Brewers defeat the Angels in a rare Saturday afternoon opener at home, 4-3, before 40,566 . . . Bill Parsons is named Rookie Pitcher of the Year . . . Ken Sanders appears in 83 games, winning 7 and saving 31 others and is named Fireman of the Year by The Sporting News . . . Sanders, Marty Pattin, Skip Lockwood and Jim Slaton lead a staff which pitches 23 shutouts, but the team batting average of .227 is the lowest in the majors as the Brewers finish in the cellar with a 69-92 mark . . . Johnny Briggs is acquired from the Phillies in May . . . Brewers make a blockbuster deal during the World Series trading Pattin, Tommy Harper, Lew Krausse, and minor leaguer Pat Skrable to Boston for George Scott, Jim Lonborg, Ken Brett, Joe Lahoud, Billy Conigliaro, and Don Pavletich . . . With the shift of the Washington franchise to Texas, the Brewers move to the Eastern Division for the 1972 season.

1972—Brewers complete worst season ever, finishing in the basement with a 65-91 record . . . A players strike, which delays the opening of the season, unusually bad summer weather, and the performance of the team all contribute to a record low attendance of 600,400 . . . Dave Bristol is fired in late May . . . Del Crandall, a popular ex-player in Milwaukee, takes over . . . Team involved in a 22-inning marathon against the Twins on May 12th, a game in which Infielder Bob Heise bats a record 10 times . . . Skip Lockwood hurls a 1-hitter against the Yankees on May 30th in Crandall's managerial debut . . . Jim Wilson is appointed Director of Baseball Operations in October, replacing Frank Lane . . . Don Money, Bill Champion, and John Vukovich are acquired in the off-season from Philadelphia.

1973—Season opener is delayed 4 days after a 13-inch snow storm blankets the city . . . In the most exciting season to date, the Brewers put together a 10-game winning streak in June, copping 15 of 16 during this span and occupying first place as late as June 19th . . . "Even the Rain Can't Stop the Brewers" trumpets a Journal headline after a rain-shortened win during the streak . . . Team's new winning ways electrify Brewerland as Milwaukee cracks the million mark for the first time with a season total of 1,092,158 . . . On a night when the Brewers win their 10th straight, Milwaukee fans so rattle Don Newhauser with their wild cheering that the Boston hurler walks in three straight runs . . . That game marks the beginning of the boisterous, deafening verbal attacks on opposing pitchers for which County Stadium crowds are famous . . . New Bernie Brewer, Bonnie Brewer and organist Frank Charles make their debuts as a fun atmosphere pervades County Stadium . . . Spirited play of rookies Darrell Porter, Bob Coluccio and Pedro Garcia, who finishes second to the Orioles' Al Bumbry

Pedro Garcia

in the Baseball Writers Association of America rookie balloting, spark team . . . Davey May and George Scott both hit over .300 . . . May has a 24-game hitting streak . . . Johnny Briggs collects 6 hits at Cleveland on August 4th . . . Jim Colborn, who hurls a 1-hitter against Texas becomes the Brewers first 20-game winner . . . After the Brewers defeat his Tigers, Manager Billy Martin makes his famous remark: "If the Brewers can win with what they've got, I'm a Chinese aviator!" . . . Milwaukee, which is only one game below .500 on August 31, is hurt by a lack of consistent relief pitching and September swoon, finishes with a 74-88 mark.

1974—Record of 76-86, the best to date, but inability of veterans, George Scott, Davey May, Jim Colborn and second year men Bob Coluccio, Darrell Porter and Pedro Garcia to duplicate '73 performances hurt . . . Tom Murphy becomes the bullpen ace with 10 wins and 20 saves . . . Robin Yount becomes the Brewers' regular shortstop at 18 years of age . . . Don Money plays 87 consecutive errorless games at third . . . Popular Mike Hegan is reacquired . . . Deron Johnson is purchased from the A's in June . . . In the most exciting game of the season, a roaring, cheering County Stadium crowd so unnerves Rollie Fingers that the relief ace allows the game winning runs in the 9th, prompting Oakland announcer Monte Moore to wildly exclaim as the winning run crosses the plate: "The Crowd did it! The Crowd did it!" . . . Royals' Steve Busby hurls a no-hitter at County Stadium on June 19th . . . Jim Baumer is appointed the Director of Baseball Operations, replacing Jim Wilson, who takes over as Chief of Major League Scouting Bureau.

1975—Baseball's home run king Hank Aaron returns to Milwaukee . . . 48,160 salute Aaron on "Welcome Home, Henry" Day . . . Aaron's presence and good start by team help increase season attendance to 1,213,357 . . . Brewers finish at 68-94 . . . Milwaukee hosts the Major League All-Star Game as 51,480 see the NL win, 6-3 . . . Boston's Rick Wise hurls 8 & 2/3 innings of no-hit ball on July 2nd at County Stadium before George Scott ends Wise's dream with a homer . . . The Boomer goes on to hit 36 homers and drive in 109 runs, the former tying him with Reggie Jackson for the HR title, the latter giving him the RBI crown . . . On the final day of the season, the Brewers announce that Del Crandall's contract would not be renewed.

Henry Aaron

1976—Alex Grammas is named manager because of "winning tradition" acquired from the World Champion Cincinnati Reds . . . Brewers finish in the cellar; however, with a 66-95 mark . . . Henry Aaron closes out his illustrious career with 10 homers . . . 40,283 turn out in September for Aaron night . . . Mike Hegan hits for the cycle against Detroit on Sept. 3 . . . Billy Travers, an All-Star, wins 15 games and Jerry Augustine is named to the All-Rookie Team . . . Looking for leadership in the off-season, the Brewers acquire Sal Bando in the first re-entry draft . . . George Scott and Bernie Carbo are traded to Boston for Cecil Cooper . . . Darrell Porter and Jim Colborn are dealt to the Royals . . . Pitcher Danny Frisella is killed in an off-season accident.

1977—Season begins with high hopes as Brewers win the Cactus League title and 11 games during April . . . Bumper crowd of 55,120, still a record, turns out for Opening Day in sunny 83 degree weather . . . Team finishes with a disappointing 67-95 mark . . . Don Money slams 25 homers and drives in 83 runs in best major league season . . . Cecil Cooper becomes the first .300 hitter in four years . . . Mike Caldwell is acquired in a June trade with Cincinnati for two minor leaguers . . . In November, the Brewers acquire Larry Hise in the re-entry draft . . . Next day, in "Saturday Night Massacre", the team lets go Jim Baumer and Alex Grammas . . . Harry Dalton is named to replace Baumer and George Bamberger, pitching coach of the Orioles, is appointed field manager two months later . . . Brewers trade Jim Slaton to the Tigers for Ben Oglivie.

1978—Brewers are the talk of the baseball world as they post a 93-69 record, fourth best in baseball and good enough for third in the tough AL East . . . Milwaukee batters hit three grand slams in sweeping the opening series against the Orioles . . . "Bambi's Bombers", a power-packed wrecking crew, leads the AL in homers with 173 and tops the loop in 6 other offensive categories . . . Brewers finish 10-5 against the World Champion Yankees, sweeping all 7 games in an 18-6 record, helped along by two 8-game winning streaks during the course of the campaign . . . With the Brewers sweeping both major awards, coupled with the Rollie Fingers sweep in 1981, Milwaukee became the only AL team ever to sweep both awards two straight years . . . Other standouts during the year were: Paul Molitor who scored 136 runs, the most in baseball since Ted Williams scored 150 runs in 1949; Gorman Thomas, who slammed a league leading 39 homers; the threesome of Yount (210), Cecil Cooper (205) and Molitor (201) became the first teammates to finish 1-2-3 in hits since the 1915 Detroit Tigers . . . In pitching, besides Vuckovich's totals, Mike Caldwell finished with a 17-13 mark, Bob McClure posted a 12-7 record, Moose Haas registered an 11-8 record and newcomer Don Sutton, acquired in late August from Houston notched a 4-1 mark, but more impressively, won the season finale in Baltimore which gave the Brewers the Eastern Division Title . . . Defensively, the Brewers led the AL for the second straight year in double plays and Yount earned his first Gold Glove . . . For Milwaukee, the highlight of the year was playing California for the AL crown . . . After falling behind 2 games to none in the best of 5 series, the Brewers rallied to become the first team ever to win the League Championship Series after being down 0-2. The 3-2 ALCS victory gave the Brewers the AL pennant and a berth in the 79th World Series against National League Champion St. Louis Cardinals . . . It had been nearly a quarter of a century since Milwaukee had hosted the Fall Classic dating back to the Braves days . . . In an exciting series labeled the "Suds Series", the Brewers and Cardinals played the full 7 games with St. Louis earning the title "World Champions" . . . But in Milwaukee, the Brewers fans showed their loyalty by turning out by the thousands to greet their heroes home in a special ticker-tape parade downtown and at County Stadium.

1983—Set an all-time Milwaukee attendance mark as 2,397,131 fans went through the turnstiles . . . Attendance ranked behind the Los Angeles Dodgers and California Angels and ahead of New York Yankees and Montreal Expos . . . Season of injuries—Rollie Fingers and Pete Vuckovich lost during spring training, 8 different key players spent time on the disabled list, and another half-dozen missed games because of injuries . . . Despite this, Brewers had 6th straight winning season, maintaining their ranking with the 3rd best record in the majors over the past six seasons . . . Cecil Cooper, Ted Simmons, and Robin Yount ranked among league leaders offensively, Moose Haas, Jim Slaton and Pete Ladd among league pitching leaders . . . Cooper's 126 RBI set a new club record and tied with Jim Rice to lead the major leagues. Cooper also collected 1,500th career hit and hit over .300 for the 7th straight season . . . Simmons had best season as a Brewer, batting over .300 while driving in over 100 runs, a club record for catchers, also collecting 2,000th career hit . . . Haas led league with .813 winning percentage and tied club record with 8-game winning streak . . . Slaton set club record by winning 14 games in relief . . . Don Sutton gets 3,000th strikeout, 8th pitcher in major league history . . . Ben Oglivie, Jim Gantner, and Haas named Player of the Week . . . Cooper named twice . . . Cooper also named Player of the Month for July . . . Yount gets 1,500th career hit . . . Rene Lachemann named manager for 1984 . . . Jim Sundberg and Bobby Clark acquired in off-season deals.

1984—For the first time since 1977, the Milwaukee Brewers experienced a sub .500 campaign . . . Injuries to Paul Molitor, Chuck Porter and Rollie Fingers, to mention just a few, crippled the Brew Crew . . . Under first year manager Rene Lachemann, Milwaukee fell into the AL Eastern Division cellar with a 67-94 mark, a club record 36½ games behind the World Champion Detroit Tigers . . . Catcher Jim Sundberg was Milwaukee's lone representative at the All-Star Game played in San Francisco . . . Don Sutton tops pitching staff with a 14-12 record . . . He becomes the first pitcher in major league history to record at least 100 strikeouts in 19 consecutive seasons . . . Robin Yount led the club in virtually every offensive department, including a .298 average, 16 HRs, and for the fourth straight year, ranked among the top fielding shortstops in the league . . . In just 33 appearances, Fingers recorded 23 saves and upped his all-time leading save total to 324 and tied Sparky Lyle for the all-time high in the AL, each with 216 saves . . . The emergence of rookies such as Dion James, Bill Schroeder, Ray Searage, Doug Loman, and Jaime Cocanower give the Brewers a bright future . . . James finished the year batting .295; Schroeder clubbed 14 homers; Searage, in just 21 late season appearances, earned 2 victories and 6 saves while posting a 0.70 ERA; Loman drove in 12 runs and added a pair of homers, batting .276 in 23 late season games; and Cocanower won 8 games . . . In late September, Brewers Executive Vice President and General Manager Harry Dalton rehired George Bamberger as skipper of the 1985 Brewers . . . Although attendance figures dropped drastically from the previous season, Milwaukee's 1,608,509 total was the best for a 7th place club.

1985—Though the Brewers improved their ranking from 7th to 6th in the AL East Division from the previous campaign, the club suffered its second straight losing year—71-90

in the Baseball Writers Association of America rookie balloting, spark team . . . Davey May and George Scott both hit over .300 . . . May has a 24-game hitting streak . . . Johnny Briggs collects 6 hits at Cleveland on August 4th . . . Jim Colborn, who hurls a 1-hitter against Texas becomes the Brewers first 20-game winner . . . After the Brewers defeat his Tigers, Manager Billy Martin makes his famous remark: "If the Brewers can win with what they've got, I'm a Chinese aviator!" . . . Milwaukee, which is only one game below .500 on August 31, is hurt by a lack of consistent relief pitching and September swoon, finishes with a 74-88 mark.

1974—Record of 76-86, the best to date, but inability of veterans, George Scott, Davey May, Jim Colborn and second year men Bob Coluccio, Darrell Porter and Pedro Garcia to duplicate '73 performances hurt . . . Tom Murphy becomes the bullpen ace with 10 wins and 20 saves . . . Robin Yount becomes the Brewers' regular shortstop at 18 years of age . . . Don Money plays 87 consecutive errorless games at third . . . Popular Mike Hegan is reacquired . . . Deron Johnson is purchased from the A's in June . . . In the most exciting game of the season, a roaring, cheering County Stadium crowd so unnerves Rollie Fingers that the relief ace allows the game winning runs in the 9th, prompting Oakland announcer Monte Moore to wildly exclaim as the winning run crosses the plate: "The Crowd did it! The Crowd did it!" . . . Royals' Steve Busby hurls a no-hitter at County Stadium on June 19th . . . Jim Baumer is appointed the Director of Baseball Operations, replacing Jim Wilson, who takes over as Chief of Major League Scouting Bureau.

1975—Baseball's home run king Hank Aaron returns to Milwaukee . . . 48,160 salute Aaron on "Welcome Home, Henry" Day . . . Aaron's presence and good start by team help increase season attendance to 1,213,357 . . . Brewers finish at 68-94 . . . Milwaukee hosts the Major League All-Star Game as 51,480 see the NL win, 6-3 . . . Boston's Rick Wise hurls 8 & 2/3 innings of no-hit ball on July 2nd at County Stadium before George Scott ends Wise's dream with a homer . . . The Boomer goes on to hit 36 homers and drive in 109 runs, the former tying him with Reggie Jackson for the HR title, the latter giving him the RBI crown . . . On the final day of the season, the Brewers announce that Del Crandall's contract would not be renewed.

Henry Aaron

1976—Alex Grammas is named manager because of "winning tradition" acquired from the World Champion Cincinnati Reds . . . Brewers finish in the cellar; however, with a 66-95 mark . . . Henry Aaron closes out his illustrious career with 10 homers . . . 40,283 turn out in September for Aaron night . . . Mike Hegan hits for the cycle against Detroit on Sept. 3 . . . Billy Travers, an All-Star, wins 15 games and Jerry Augustine is named to the All-Rookie Team . . . Looking for leadership in the off-season, the Brewers acquire Sal Bando in the first re-entry draft . . . George Scott and Bernie Carbo are traded to Boston for Cecil Cooper . . . Darrell Porter and Jim Colborn are dealt to the Royals . . . Pitcher Danny Frisella is killed in an off-season accident.

1977—Season begins with high hopes as Brewers win the Cactus League title and 11 games during April . . . Bumper crowd of 55,120, still a record, turns out for Opening Day in sunny 83 degree weather . . . Team finishes with a disappointing 67-95 mark . . . Don Money slams 25 homers and drives in 83 runs in best major league season . . . Cecil Cooper becomes the first .300 hitter in four years . . . Mike Caldwell is acquired in a June trade with Cincinnati for two minor leaguers . . . In November, the Brewers acquire Larry Hise in the re-entry draft . . . Next day, in "Saturday Night Massacre", the team lets go Jim Baumer and Alex Grammas . . . Harry Dalton is named to replace Baumer and George Bamberger, pitching coach of the Orioles, is appointed field manager two months later . . . Brewers trade Jim Slaton to the Tigers for Ben Oglive.

1978—Brewers are the talk of the baseball world as they post a 93-69 record, fourth best in baseball and good enough for third in the tough AL East . . . Milwaukee batters hit three grand slams in sweeping the opening series against the Orioles . . . "Bambi's Bombers", a power-packed wrecking crew, leads the AL in homers with 173 and tops the loop in 6 other offensive categories . . . Brewers finish 10-5 against the World Champion Yankees, sweeping all 7 games in Milwaukee . . . In a memorable evening, the Brewers sweep a two-night twin bill against the Bronx Bombers at County Stadium on June 28th behind route-going performances by Mike Caldwell and Jerry Augustine . . . Ten days later, the Brewers sweep a three game series against the Yanks with Hise's game-winning homer off Rich Gossage on Saturday night being the highlight . . . Team wins 10 straight in June to make believers out of doubters . . . "Bring on the Red Sox, City is Ready"; blares the Sentinel headline as the Brewers sell out for an August series against the Bosox in advance . . . Caldwell wins 22 games and becomes the first pitcher since Dean Chance in 1964 to blank the Yankees three times in one season . . . Moose Haas fans 14 Yankees in a single game . . . Brewers unveil new pinstripe uniforms and new team logo . . . Bud Selig is named Executive of the Year . . . George Bamberger is named Manager of the Year . . . Harry Dalton receives the General Manager of the Year Award . . . Paul Molitor is named the Rookie of the Year . . . Mike Caldwell is named Comeback Player of the Year . . . Robin Yount, Hise, and Molitor are named to post-season All-Star teams . . . Don Money becomes the first Brewer ever voted into the starting lineup for the mid-season All-Star Game . . . Hise and Lary Sorensen are also named to the squad . . . Brewers are named the top state sports story by AP and UPI . . . 1,601,406 pass through County Stadium turnstiles . . . Jim Slaton is reacquired in the re-entry draft.

1979—"Brewer Fever" sweeps the city and state as 1,918,343 fans stream into the stadium . . . Brewers finish in second place behind the Orioles with a 95-66 mark, the fourth best in baseball . . . "Bambi's Bombers" continue to bomb as Gorman Thomas is crowned the AL Home Run Champion with 45 round trippers . . . Ben Oglivie belts 29, Sixto Lezcano 28, and Cecil Cooper, 24 . . . Larry Hise, injured most of the season, appears in only 26 games . . . Oglivie and Cooper each belt 3 homers in a single game . . . Cooper's third circuit clout is a game winner against the Yankees on July 27 off Gossage and 48,000 fans roar their approval in a curtain call . . . Paul Molitor hit .322 and collects a club record 16 triples . . . Cooper, Lezcano and Charlie Moore join Molitor in hitting .300 or better . . . Ten date homestand against the Yankees, Orioles and Red Sox totals 408,547 . . . Overall, the Brewers crack the 20,000 mark 43 times, 30,000 mark 25 times, the 40,000 base 12 times and the 50,000 plateau 4 times . . . Brewers streak of 213 straight non-shutout games broken on the final day of the season against the Twins . . . Brewers again named top state sports story by wire services . . . Brewers picked to win division in 1980 in several pre-season polls.

1980—The Brewers were set to challenge the rest of the Eastern Division when spring training opened in late February, however, no one expected to see Manager George Bamberger out of uniform and in the hospital. On March 6, Bambi suffered a mild heart attack, later requiring bypass surgery to correct his ailment . . . Bob "Buck" Rodgers assumed the role as acting manager until Bambi returned on June 6 . . . Opening Day was truly one to remember as Sixto Lezcano hit a ninth inning grand slam at County Stadium to lift the Brewers to a 9-5 victory over the Boston Red Sox before 53,313 jubilant fans . . . Injuries plagued the Brewers as pitcher Jim Slaton suffered shoulder problems, Larry Hise really never recovered from a torn rotator cuff injury and Don Money sustained ligament damage to his right knee. Each would be lost for most of the season . . . A new scoreboard is unveiled at County Stadium, with capabilities to show instant replays, slow motion as well as animation . . . Numerous club and individual records are broken as Cecil Cooper batted .352, Ben Oglivie hit 41 home runs as a lefthander, which also tied him for the AL lead with New York's Reggie Jackson and Robin Yount collects 82 extra base hits, including 49 doubles, to mention a few . . . The club tops the major leagues with 203 homers, 774 runs, 2,535 total bases and a .448 slugging percentage, all Brewers records . . . Not since the 1948-'49 Boston Red Sox has a team produced three players with 100 or more RBI in two consecutive seasons, but the Brewers did. In 1979 Gorman Thomas (123), Cecil Cooper (106) and Sixto Lezcano (101) became the first Milwaukee trio to go over 100 RBI in a season. And this season, Cooper (122), Ben Oglivie (118) and Thomas (105) put the Brewers in the record books . . . Milestones were another special item for the Brewers—Sal Bando drove in his 1,000th RBI in his hometown of Cleveland on April 29; Cecil Cooper collected his 1,000th hit on July 21st in New York; Reggie Cleveland won his 100th game on July 25 in Baltimore; and probably the most remarkable feat of the year came on August 16, when Robin Yount became one of the youngest players to ever attain 1,000 hits. At the tender age of 24, Yount put his name along side such Hall of Fame notables as Ty Cobb and Al Kaline . . . The Brewers never reached their true potential, finishing a distant third in the East with an 86-76 mark, but they still managed to chalk up their third straight winning season . . . In an effort to improve the ball club, General Manager Harry Dalton wheels and deals at the annual winter meetings, trading with the St. Louis Cardinals for All-Star Catcher Ted Simmons, steady starter Pete Vuckovich and the all-time save leader in baseball, Rollie Fingers. He also picked up third baseman Roy Howell in the Free Agent Draft and later signed pitcher Randy Lerch, making the Brewers the team to beat in the East in 1981.

1981—Nearly every major sports publication in America predicted that the New York Yankees would face its strongest challenge for the American League Eastern Division pennant in 1981 from the much improved Milwaukee Brewers. In the end, it appeared that the preseason pollsters were quite accurate . . . In a strike interrupted season, it came down to the first half-winners—New York—versus the second season winners—Milwaukee . . . The Brewers would finish the campaign with a 62-47 overall record (.569), helped along by the best mark in the league in the second half—31-22 (.585) .

. . . With Bob "Buck" Rodgers beginning his first full season as the Brewers skipper, the pressure of producing a winner in Milwaukee was on him . . . Rollie Fingers established himself from the outset, earning a save in the season opener against Cleveland before an American League 1981 season high of 71,067 fans at Cleveland Stadium . . . Ted Simmons' first hit in the league came the next day as it cleared the left field fence in the 8th inning . . . Despite a slow start, Pete Vuckovich not only goes on to top the Brewers pitching staff but also ranks among the league's best hurlers in '81 . . . It's Fingers who steals the spotlight in '81 . . . His performance is unmatched as he posts a 6-3 record, 1.04 ERA and a major league high 28 saves in 47 appearances . . . He is more impressive during the second season, notching a 5-1 mark, 0.72 ERA and 16 saves, being involved in 21 of the Brewers second half wins, including 12 of the final 15 . . . For his efforts, he becomes the first relief pitcher in major league history to win both the Cy Young Award and the Most Valuable Player Award in the same season . . . In addition, Rollie earns his 4th Rolaids Relief Man of the Year Award, The Sporting News Fireman of the Year Award and the Joe Cronin Award for distinguished service . . . For the fifth straight season, Cecil Cooper batted well over .300, this time chalking up a .320 batting average . . . Coop also led the league with 35 doubles, the second time in the last three years he's topped the loop in that department . . . For the fourth straight year, Gorman Thomas hit 20 or more home runs, a club record, this time smacking 21 . . . He also hit a solid .259, his best average ever in the big leagues . . . While Fingers was outstanding in the bullpen, Pete Vuckovich was brilliant as a starter, nabbing a 14-4 record for a share of the top spot in the league in victories and a .778 winning percentage, the best among starters . . . Vuke accomplished the fine season by winning 8 straight games from May 5-June 11, tying a club record. He also set a club mark by winning 6 straight in May, the most wins in any given month . . . Defensively, the Brewers keystone combination of Robin Yount and Jim Gantner helped Milwaukee lead the AL with 135 double plays . . . Yount led all regular shortstops with a .985 fielding percentage . . . Gantner, playing in his first full season at second base, led all pivotmen with 94 double plays.

1982—After 12 years, the uphill climb for Milwaukee paid off as 1982 became a banner year for the Brewers. Picked as the favorite to capture the American League Eastern Division, the Brewers matched that prediction on June 2 . . . That was when the Brewers rebounded from the second division and became a contender under new Manager Harvey Kuenn. Under the Brewers "only" batting coach, Milwaukee became known as "Harvey's Wallbangers", chalking up a 72-43 mark after June 2 and finishing with the best record in baseball at 95-67 . . . In June, the Brewers won 20 of 27 games and by July 3 had moved into a first place tie with the Boston Red Sox . . . In that span, the Brewers set an AL record and tied a major league mark by blasting 35 homers in 15 straight games . . . The most feared offensive lineup in baseball led the majors in eight batting departments including 216 homers, 891 runs, 843 RBI and 2,606 total bases . . . The Brewers were in first place in the East 80 games during the year, including the final 62 games . . . The Sporting News "Player of the Year" Robin Yount led the league in four areas: 210 hits, 367 total bases, .578 slugging percentage and 46 doubles; also earning the AL "Most Valuable Player" honor from the BBWAA . . . Pete Vuckovich was named the Cy Young Award Winner in the AL with an 18-6 record, helped along by two 8-game winning streaks during the course of the campaign . . . With the Brewers sweeping both major awards, coupled with the Rollie Fingers sweep in 1981, Milwaukee became the only AL team ever to sweep both awards two straight years . . . Other standouts during the year were: Paul Molitor who scored 136 runs, the most in baseball since Ted Williams scored 150 runs in 1949; Gorman Thomas, who slammed a league leading 39 homers; the threesome of Yount (210), Cecil Cooper (205) and Molitor (201) became the first teammates to finish 1-2-3 in hits since the 1915 Detroit Tigers . . . 1985—Though the Brewers improved their ranking from 7th to 6th in the AL East Division from the previous campaign, the club suffered its second straight losing year—71-90

... Injuries once again took their toll on the club, sidelining Robin Yount, Cecil Cooper, Ben Oglivie, Chuck Porter and Randy Ready just to mention a few ... Cecil Cooper and Paul Molitor were named to the All-Star team—for Cooper, it was his 5th invitation while Molitor, who participated in the mid-summer classic in his hometown (Minneapolis), was named to his second ... Two rookies made impressive debuts: Pitcher Teddy Higuera topped the pitching staff with a 15-8 record, setting a club mark in victories by a rookie. He was named The Sporting News American League Rookie Pitcher of the Year and finished second in the Baseball Writers Association of America balloting for AL Rookie of the Year ... Ernest Riles, called up in mid-May to replace Robin Yount at shortstop, finished 4th on the club with a .286 average and was named to the Topps All-Rookie squad and wound up 2nd runnerup in the BBWAA voting for Rookie of the Year ... Paul Molitor, after missing most of the 1984 season following elbow surgery, returned to lead the club with a .297 batting average and finished second in the voting for AL Comeback Player of the Year honors ... Pitcher Danny Darwin, despite posting a dismal 8-18 record, including a club record 10 straight losses, became the first Brewer to register a 1-hitter, 2-hitter and 3-hitter in the same season ... Moose Haas became the first pitcher to 1-hit the New York Yankees in Yankee Stadium in 17 seasons ... Attendance figures dropped for the second straight year—1,360,265—the lowest since 1977.

1986—The year began with advice to fans—“be patient”. This edition of the Brewers was being called several names but all having basically the same meaning ... The “Youth Movement” was underway with no fewer than 16 new faces on the 40-man roster ... The pitching staff underwent the most drastic transformation—by season's end only Teddy Higuera would survive from the 1985 staff ... Higuera would become the first 20-game winner for the Brewers since Mike Caldwell in 1978. Higuera's 20-11 mark made him the first Mexican born pitcher to win 20 games in the AL ... Mark Clear and Dan Plesac the right / left handed stoppers in the bullpen, combined for a 15-12 record and 30 saves ... Considered the biggest steal of the year, Rob Deer solidified the Brewers power failure of recent years by slamming 33 long balls and driving in 85 runs, tops on the club ... Robin Yount leads the Brewers with a .312 average, collecting his 2,000th career hit on September 6 ... Brewers wind up in 6th place, while home attendance dips to 1,265,041 ... George Bamberger retires before the season ends and Tom Trebelhorn becomes the 5th manager in as many years.

1987—The Milwaukee Brewers entered the new season with a plan to record their first winning record in 4 years ... They did better than that, winning more than 90 games for the first time since going to the World Series in 1982, only the 4th time in club history ... Milwaukee was quickly named “Team Streak” for its brand of baseball in this season of surprises and hope ... The Brewers jumped out to a major league record—tying 13-0 start and tied the AL record by posting a 17-1 record—the furthest into a season with just one setback ... Along the way, Juan Nieves recorded the Brewers first no-hitter, that coming on April 15 at Baltimore, making him the first Puerto Rican born pitcher to do it in the majors ...

Juan Nieves

... As quickly the Brewers enjoyed success, their fortunes turned in May, dropping a club record 12 straight games and falling out of first place on May 13 ... The Brewers limped into the All-Star Break one game under .500, sending just one player to the mid-season classic, Dan Plesac, whose 18 saves topped the AL ... Paul Molitor, who missed better than 40 games in the first half with hamstring problems, ignited the Brewers after the break ... Molitor hit in 39 straight games immediately following the All-Star break, setting a club record and putting together the 5th best spree in modern day baseball, the longest in the AL since Joe DiMaggio set the major league mark with 56 straight games in 1941 ... In the second game after the break, Dale Sveum hit 3 homers, including one from the right and one from the left side of the plate, only the second Brewer to ever do it ... Robin Yount, who finishes the year with better than 100 RBI, the first Brewer to cross that plateau in four seasons, collects his 400th career double ... Rob Deer, ties a major league record by hitting grand slam home runs in back to back games against Cleveland ... Molitor scores in a club record 16 straight games, just 2 short of the major league mark held by Red Rolfe of the New York Yankees in 1939 ... Teddy Higuera sets a club record by tossing 32 consecutive scoreless innings ... During this period he pitched 3 straight shutouts ... Higuera also wins a personal high 7 straight games, finishes with an 18-10 mark while setting a new standard, chalking up 240 strikeouts for the season ... Sveum hits 25 homers, the most by a Brewers shortstop

FACTS ABOUT COUNTY STADIUM

The site for County Stadium was officially selected on January 11, 1949, with the initial construction beginning on October 19, 1950. The stadium's original seating capacity of 28,111 permanent seats and 7,900 portable seats had a total capacity of 36,011 for the stadium's first event: an exhibition baseball game between the Milwaukee Braves and Boston Red Sox on April 6, 1953.

On October 6, 1953, the construction of additional permanent seating was approved, increasing the capacity to 43,394 for the 1954 baseball season. The outfield wall was constructed in 1961 and permanent bleachers were added in centerfield during the 1961 season. In 1962, the moving ramps were installed and in 1964, improvements for television and photographic facilities and the erection of temporary bleachers were completed, bringing the total number of bleacher seats to 10,591.

Additional improvements included a remodeled football pressbox in 1972; a new lighting system in 1973; additional seating (3,400) in 1974; a remodeled baseball pressbox in 1974; and additional seating (4,400) in 1975, bringing the capacity to the present 53,192.

In addition, the Milwaukee Brewers built a new electronic scoreboard in April, 1980 and an outdoor scoreboard in April, 1984, both of which were donated to Milwaukee County. The most recent addition occurred in 1986, when permanent cement bleachers were constructed.

County Stadium will be torn down when the Brewers move into their new convertible roof stadium in 1999. Hunzinger Construction, a local contractor, was involved in the building of County Stadium and is a part of the construction team on the new ballpark as well.

HITTING FOR THE CYCLE

Only four Milwaukee Brewers have ever hit for the cycle in a game: Mike Hegan (1976), Charlie Moore (1980), Robin Yount (1988) and Paul Molitor (1991). Hegan managed to hit a double, homer and a triple off Detroit's Mark "The Bird" Fidrych on September 3, 1976 in Tiger Stadium and completed the task by hitting a single off Bill Laxton. He finished the day with four hits in five at-bats including a walk, two runs scored and six RBI. Moore hit for the cycle on October 1, 1980 at California, singling off Ed Halicki, homering off Chris Knapp, tripling off Dave Schuler and finally doubling off Mark Clear. He went four-for-five in the game with three RBI and two stolen bases, capping off the best single game performance of his career. On June 12, 1988, in Chicago, Yount singled and homered off Joel Davis, doubled off Bill Long and tripled off Steve Rosenberg, finishing the game with a walk and a club record-tying four runs scored. Yount became the second player ever to record the feat as a designated hitter joining Kansas City's John Mayberry (1973). Molitor was the most recent Brewers hitter to register each of the four hits in a single game. He did so off of Minnesota's Kevin Tapani at the Metrodome on May 15, 1991. Molitor also accomplished the feat as a designated hitter becoming the third player to do it.

1981 AMERICAN LEAGUE EASTERN DIVISION SERIES

MILWAUKEE vs NEW YORK

For the first time in major league history, a divisional playoff series was established because of the split season. In the American League Eastern Division, New York, winners of the first half confronted MILWAUKEE, winners of the second half. It was the 34th time the Yankees participated in post-season action, while it marked the first appearance in playoff competition for the Brewers. New York took the best of five series, three-games-to-two and swept three games from Oakland to earn the American League Championship. The Yankees lost to the National League Champion Los Angeles Dodgers four-games-to-two in the 78th World Series.

1982 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

MILWAUKEE vs CALIFORNIA

In a dramatic and thrilling American League Championship Series, Milwaukee set a precedent in LCS play. The Brewers overcame an 0-2 deficit against California to win their first American League Pennant. The Angels captured the first two games played in Anaheim and the Brewers rallied at County Stadium, sweeping three straight games. The comeback performance by Milwaukee was a first in LCS history.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS PLAYERS WITH 200 HIT-SEASONS

Three players have surpassed the 200 hit mark in one season while wearing a Brewers uniform, led by Cecil Cooper, who accomplished the feat three times. Cooper set a club record in 1980 when he pounded out 219 hits and he also accomplished the feat in 1982 (205) and 1983 (203). Paul Molitor also reached the 200-hit plateau in 1982 with 201. Robin Yount (210) has also accomplished the feat, as Yount, Cooper and Molitor finished 1-2-3 in the American League in hits in 1982, marking the first time that has happened since the 1915 Detroit Tigers.

1982 WORLD SERIES

MILWAUKEE vs ST. LOUIS

It was labeled the Suds Series, and the 79th World Series between Milwaukee and St. Louis truly foamed over with exciting action as it went the limit. The Series was tied three times and each club held the advantage twice in the see-saw battle. The Cardinals won their ninth World Championship by downing the Brewers four-games-to-three, including winning the final two games in St. Louis. It was St. Louis' 13th trip to the World Series and Milwaukee's first trip to the October Classic.

SPECIAL TICKET PROGRAMS

BIRTHDAY AT THE PARK PACKAGES—For just $15, you can treat your favorite baseball fan to a special birthday at the ballpark. Fans purchasing a "Birthday At The Park" package will receive a gift box of great souvenirs, their name in lights on the scoreboard and a personal Happy Birthday serenade. To purchase a "Birthday At The Park" package, call (414) 933-9000 or 1-800-933-7890.

BREWERS BUDDIES PROGRAM—The Brewers Buddies Program makes baseball games at County Stadium available to children who otherwise would be unable to attend and enjoy the All-American sport. The program, made possible by ticket contributions from area corporations and Season Ticket Holders, distributes tickets to low income, handicapped, troubled and other disadvantaged youth throughout Wisconsin.

COCA-COLA FAN CLUB—For $14, kids 13 and under receive a membership card good for six free general admission tickets on selected dates throughout the season and an opportunity to run the bases like the big leaguers at County Stadium. Call (414) 933-4114 for more information.

GIFT CERTIFICATES—Brewers Gift Certificates are a great idea for that special occasion and that special Brewers fan. Available in denominations as low as $1, Brewers gift certificates are not only good for tickets but also parking and attractions in the Brewers Boardwalk located in the leftfield concourse and all concession stands. To purchase a gift certificate, stop by the Brewers Ticket Office or call (414) 933-9000 or 1-800-933-7890.

KIDS AND SENIORS DATES—On the very popular Kids and Senior Citizen Dates, all youngsters 14 and under and all senior citizens receive $3.50 off all reserved and General Admission seats. Special youth group prices are also available in the bleachers.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS FAMILY SECTIONS—The Milwaukee Brewers have special family sections, designated areas which prohibit all alcoholic beverages, available for every game. There is also no smoking in the family sections. A minimum of 2,875 seats are reserved in the upper boxes (Box 4), lower grandstand (Section 3) and upper grandstand (Section 4) and in the centerfield bleachers (Sections J-K). The Brewers created these special sections in 1987, as part of a continuing effort to provide an environment attractive to the entire family.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS GOLD CLUB

The Brewers Gold Club is a volunteer sales force designed to assist the Milwaukee Brewers with their season and group sales efforts. It is comprised of successful, civic-minded individuals from throughout the community.

This dynamic selling force, in addition to selling tickets, will help to draw the Milwaukee Brewers and the business community into a closer relationship evidenced by a substantial ticket commitment to be in effect through 2000 announced by the Metropolitan Milwaukee Association of Commerce on January 23, 1995.

The Brewers Gold Club will play a vital role in the long-term success and stability of this franchise. While accomplishing these goals, members will become an extension of the Brewers in the community and will share in the experience of being associated with Major League Baseball. Members of the Gold Club will also serve as ambassadors in stating the benefits and goodwill a Major League team and a new ballpark brings to the state of Wisconsin.

Headed by the Brewers' Geoff Campion, the Gold Club was created in February of 1992. The group is patterned after other clubs who have had successful private sales forces such as the Royal Lancers in Kansas City (created in 1969), the Designated Hitters in Baltimore (1979) and the Gemini Club in Minnesota (1988).

THE LONG & SHORT OF THINGS

Nine records were broken when the Milwaukee Brewers and Chicago White Sox played a 25 inning, 8 hour and 6 minute game in Comiskey Park on May 8-9, 1984. They played the longest major league (8:06) and American League game (8:06 & 25 innings); longest game at Comiskey Park, the longest Brewers and White Sox game ever, longest game of 1984, most innings caught by a catcher (Carlton Fisk, 25) and most at bats by a Brewers hitter (11, Cecil Cooper). Harold Baines homered off Chuck Porter with one out in the bottom of the 25th to give Chicago a 7-6 win.

On May 1, 1991, the Brewers and White Sox met in the longest game in Brewers history at County Stadium. The 19-inning marathon lasted 6 hours and 5 minutes as the Brewers prevailed 10-9.

The Milwaukee Brewers and Chicago White Sox set a Brewers record for the longest 9 inning game when they played 4 hours and 11 minutes on July 10, 1983 at Comiskey Park. The Brewers won the game, 12-9.

The Brewers and Minnesota Twins battled 22 innings on May 12, 1972 at the old Met Stadium in Bloomington, MN, which is the longest game in Twins' history. The Brewers won the marathon 4-3, a game which took 5 hours and 47 minutes to complete.

The Brewers and California Angels raced through a 9 inning contest on May 6, 1972 in the Big-A in Anaheim, CA. The game, the shortest in both clubs' history was won by the Angels, 2-0, in 1 hour and 31 minutes.
